

Nicola & Mike, Knipe Hall - Sept 2014

"We had Annabel for the 6 weeks run up to the wedding and the day that she took over couldn't have come sooner. It was great not to have to deal with the suppliers anymore and for Annabel to manage them and to make sure that they all knew what they were providing and when; she also had some great recommendations where we were struggling to pick the right supplier. I found it difficult to stop organising my friends and family as it is what I do generally, however Annabel encouraged me to let go and before not too long I relinquished the reins and was happy in the knowledge that Annabel was going to make an excellent job of it (and she did).

Annabel was great to have around in the run up and on the day; she has a lovely friendly personality, she was easy to talk to and I trusted her fully. She kept in touch regularly and she made sure that everything was planned and in place despite the number of challenges we faced with the chosen venue. On the wedding day she was discreet and if anything went wrong I certainly wasn't aware of it – I had no worries on the day at all.

I would recommend Annabel to anyone getting married in Cumbria and I would strongly recommend her if you are hiring a venue and you have to create your wedding from scratch.

Thank you Annabel!"
